A few words from the Senior Warden

(It is said that a picture is worth a thousand words)

“Man is the only animal that deals in that atrocity of atrocities, War. He is the only one that gathers his brethren about him and goes forth in cold blood and calm pulse to exterminate his kind. He is the only animal that for sordid wages will march out...and help to slaughter strangers of his own species who have done him no harm and with whom he has no quarrel. ..And in the intervals between campaigns he washes the blood off his hands and works for "the universal brotherhood of man"--with his mouth.”

Mark Twain

Imagine if you will a leader of a country reading a map and believing the great cartographer had made a mistake. As the leader, it is his/her responsibility to teach the country a lesson in geography. How to correct the map to reflect different lines and words? The easiest way would be to hire another map-maker and simply redraw and rename the perceived mistakes. Then see if there is any disagreement. Or, a more complicated method would be to make a big show using all those surplus soldiers, tanks, missiles, and other armament that was just sitting there doing nothing. The map wouldn't be corrected on paper, but new words and lines would be drawn on the ground with whatever amount of blood was needed to achieve that goal. Surplus population would be addressed. Soldiers would be allowed target practice at real moving targets. Tanks could see first hand if they could destroy a building. What a great opportunity to test those classified electronic systems in the missile inventory and make sure those buttons still work. Plus, all that surplus ammunition could be used before it becomes too old to use.

“Every gun that is made, every warship launched, every rocket fired, signifies in the final sense a theft from those who hunger and are not fed, those who are cold and are not clothed.” – Dwight D. Eisenhower – General of the Army and President of the United States.

And this is the real point that concerns Christianity. Jesus was crucified, then his followers were killed, and genocide was the goal for all other Christians. Jesus reappears after his crucifixion and asks Peter, “Lovest thou me?” Then, “feed my sheep!” He never said, “revenge my death,” or to start a war with the Romans and Jews, or to conquer lands.

His command was simple.

It is difficult being a Christian today. We are asked (well more than asked) to provide food to the hungry, to find shelter for the homeless, to give clothes to those who have none, to tend to those who are sick and to love your neighbor. I have looked at every definition in reference books and no where does it say to show Gods love by invading your neighbor and killing its people. I have looked all through the New Testament and no where can I find Jesus telling us to take land and kill those on it. Michael Curry – “if it’s not about love, it’s not about Jesus!”

St. Andrew's used to give generously to feed the hungry by placing food in the basket for Valley Churches. We don't do that so much any more. The pandemic doesn't mean that hungry people are any less hungry. It doesn't mean that people who need to be clothed are any less in need; that the sick are any less sick; or the unloved need any less love. In fact, it means they need it more and the Christian response seems to be to provide less. What's wrong with this picture? Jesus said to feed His people. He said to forgive. He said to love one another. Yes, it is hard to be a Christian when the world is headed in another direction.

We wanted war to stop. So, in 1945 we dropped two bombs. The first caused 135,000 casualties and the second 64,000 casualties. The message was heard loud and clear. Killing civilians with bombs caused the war to stop. Currently bombs are also killing civilians in an attempt to avoid war. If what I just said makes no sense, I agree. It makes no sense. It does make it difficult to be a Christian, however. War doesn't determine who is right, only who is left.

“I know not with what weapons World War III will be fought, but World War IV will be fought with sticks and stones.” Albert Einstein

I want my cabin back. I loved the woods in Vermont. I was self sufficient. No one would invade or bomb Vermont. All we have there is Maple Syrup.

 CHURCH

An Invitation
 from Presiding Bishop Michael B. Curry to Practice the Way of Love

I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. — Ephesians 3:17-19

In the first century Jesus of Nazareth inspired a movement. A community of people whose lives were centered on Jesus Christ and committed to living the way of God's unconditional, unselfish, sacrificial, and redemptive love. Before they were called "church" or "Christian," this Jesus Movement was simply called "the way."

Today I believe our vocation is to live as the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement. But how can we together grow more deeply with Jesus Christ at the center of our lives, so we can bear witness to his way of love in and for the world?

The deep roots of our Christian tradition may offer just such a path. For centuries, monastic communities have shaped their lives around rhythms and disciplines for following Jesus together. Such a pattern is known as a "Rule of Life." The framework you now hold — The Way of Love: Practices for Jesus-Centered Life — outlines a Rule for the Episcopal branch of the Jesus Movement.

It is designed to be spare and spacious, so that individuals, ministry groups, congregations, and networks can flesh it out in unique ways and build a church-wide treasure trove of stories and resources. There is no specific order you need to follow. If you already keep a Rule or spiritual disciplines, you might reflect and discover how that path intersects with this one. By entering into reflection, discernment and commitment around the practices of Turn — Learn — Pray — Worship — Bless — Go — Rest, I pray we will grow as communities following the loving, liberating, life-giving way of Jesus. His way has the power to change each of our lives and to change this world.

Your brother in the Way of Jesus,

+Michael

THE WAY OF LOVE
Practices for Jesus-Centered Life

What is the Way of Love?

The Way of Love is a way of life. More than a program or curriculum, it is a return to the ancient pathways and Rules of Life that followers of Jesus have observed for centuries. They knew the power of commitment to a core set of practices – Turn, Learn, Pray, Worship, Bless, Go, Rest – and the power of gathering in a small group where you find love and support for living into these commitments. If we hope to not only worship Jesus but to grow more like him and bear his redeeming love in the world, we can adopt a rule of life like the Way of Love and find a community with which to practice it.

What is a Rule of Life? How Do I Begin? A Rule of Life is an intentional commitment to a set of practices that provide guidance, rhythm and inspiration for living a beautiful, meaningful and holy life. As we place these practices at the heart of our daily lives and join with companions who share the commitment, we grow more and more in the unselfish, hope-filled Way of Love that Jesus embodied in the world.

Exploring and Living the Practices We invite you to join us at St. Andrews for the Wednesday Lenten Soup Suppers and walk in the Way of Love during the Lenten Season. Every Wednesday from 4 to 6 pm in the Parish Hall

The Second Step

Learn—Reflect on Scripture each day, especially on Jesus' life and teachings.

By reading and reflecting on Scripture, especially the life and teachings of Jesus, we draw near to God and God's word dwells in us. When we open our minds and hearts to Scripture, we learn to see God's story and God's activity in everyday life.

Start by Choosing a Gospel or New Testament letter, and over the course of a week, read it as if it were a book

Then go deeper by reading Scripture each day, perhaps a passage from the Daily Office. Reflect on the passage by journaling for five minutes

Over the next several months we will walk through the next step.

Join us to study The Way of Love each week during Lent at St. Andrews' Parish Hall. Enjoy a warm, satisfying soup supper before our study session.

Wednesdays throughout Lent from 4—6pm. No reservations needed.
